[verse riff played 2x with no vocals then verse riff played over each line of verses (4x)]

[Verse 1]

```

G                D                C
If you've got a picture of your face
G                D                C
Could you leave it on your way out the door?
G                D                C
I don't care if it's color or black or white
G                F#                C
I just need something to remember you by

```

[Chorus]

```

G    D    C                C
Ah, Oh, before my life went dim
                                (before my life went dim)
G    D    C                C
Ah, Oh, before my life went dim
                                (before my life went dim)
Em    D    C                C
No one told me the trouble I was in

G    D                C
Before my life went dim

[Verse 2]

```

G           D           C
I painted half my face up green
G           D           C
Don't you know I painted half my face blue
G           D           C           C
In hopes of showing you both sides of me both sides of me
G           D           C           C
I guess it came down to don't you love don't you love me

```

[Chorus]

```

G   D   C           C
Ah, Oh, before my life went dim
                                   (before my life went dim)
G   D   C           C
